This in-person training originally schedule for June was postponed due to Covid 19. In the meantime, we will be hosting a mini-webinar focusing on immediate steps that should be considered when working on the next BBRI and to prepare for a possible RAD conversion. We feel this information is too important and time sensitive to wait until the September training. Please join us June 10, 2020 at 10 AM Pacific. Register for the Mini-webinar Here
